

Boulder Book Store's 1st Annual

"Community of Readers" Photography Contest

November 6, 2009- January 15, 2010

As a local, independent bookstore, Boulder Book Store prides itself on the relationship it holds with the community of Boulder. This bond is what inspired the theme of this year's photography contest, "A Community of Readers". We are looking for photographs that capture how books and reading are a big part of our community. Grab your camera and get creative!

Open to a range of ages, the contest is divided into three categories:

- Children ages 12 and under
- Teens ages 13-17
- Adults ages 18 and over

To participate in this year's contest, please bring submissions into Boulder Book Store, or mail submissions to:

Boulder Book Store's Winter Photography Contest Rules

Terms: The Boulder Book Store Winter Photo Contest begins Monday, November 2, 2009 and ends Friday, January 15, 2010 at 12pm. Any contestant who submits an entry thereby agrees to the following rules of the contest.

Eligible Contestants: There will be three specific age categories under which participants can submit entries. The first category will be for children ages 12 and under. The second entry category will be for teenagers ages 13 through 17, and then all people 18 and older may submit entries in the Adult category. Persons affiliated with Boulder Book Store through employment or internship, however, are ineligible. In order to participate, all persons must fill out and submit an applicant entry form as well.

What to Enter: The theme for the photo contest is "A Community of Readers". All entries must relate to this theme in some way and photographers should have a local connection. Should any persons desire to alter their photograph using traditional or digital methods, please include a small excerpt explaining what methods were used on the photograph (i.e. bleaching, toning, collages, etc.)

Photographs must have been taken within the last five years. Contestants can submit up to three entries.

All photographs must be ready for display. This includes but is not limited to matting, cropping, and bordering, however no frames are allowed. Sizing of photographs can be up to 11x14 inches.

Any submissions that have received previous awards or have been published elsewhere are ineligible, and will be disqualified. Any photos that are an infringement or violation of another person's copyright are ineligible as well.

How to Enter: To submit entries, contestants can either drop submissions off at the front desk of the Boulder Book Store during business hours, or contestants may mail submissions to
